WHEN?

HER & HER MOONLIGHT

As Yue wakes up on her 19th birthday, she feels a mix of excitement and nerves. It's her first year in college, a fresh start filled with new challenges and unknowns. She wonders if she's ready for what's ahead.

New faces, new experiences—everything feels uncertain. But Yue knows she doesn't need to have it all figured out. Growth comes from taking one step at a time.

She gets out of bed, staring at herself in the mirror. "Today is the start of something new," she whispers. The thought both thrills and terrifies her. Change is never easy, but it's necessary.

As she steps out of her dorm room, she reminds herself: every challenge is a chance to grow.

And she's ready to begin.

A new beginnings;

Every new beginning feels uncertain, but growth comes from taking the first step.

Purpose?

HER & HER MOONLIGHT

Day by day passes by, and Yue feels more and more drained. At first, she thought it was just exhaustion from classes, the endless assignments, and the pressure to fit in. But as time went on, she realized it was something deeper—an invisible weight pressing down on her, making every step feel heavier than the last.

HER & HER MOONLIGHT

She watches her classmates laugh, make friends, and chase their dreams with energy she wishes she had. “Why do I feel so empty?” she wonders. She’s doing everything she’s supposed to—studying, showing up, pushing forward. But inside, it feels like something is missing.

One evening, as she sits alone in her dorm room, staring at the ceiling, she makes a decision. She won’t let this feeling consume her. Maybe she doesn’t have all the answers, but she can start by taking care of herself, by listening to what she truly needs.

She picks up a notebook and writes down one simple question: “What makes me feel alive?”. Everythings around her falls into a deep silence—a silence that stretches on, like a quiet pause in time. Her pen hovers above the paper, then slowly begins to write before she’s stood up walking away.

HER & HER MOONLIGHT

How about you? What's your life purpose?

[illegible]

“Wake up.
Tie your hair.
Own the day”

Push through the overthinking, silence the doubts, and step forward with confidence. Not every day will be perfect, but every day is a chance to grow. Breathe, trust yourself, and take it one step at a time. You are stronger than your thoughts, braver than your fears, and more capable than you realize.

Being yourself;

the journey isnt about becoming anything,
my dear. its about you, becoming you,
being your ownself is already enough.

HER & HER MOONLIGHT

Since we're walking the same path, from this moment on, we are one. Whether you're wrestling with self-doubt, picking up the pieces of a heartbreak, falling headfirst into love, or just searching for someone who truly listens—I'm here for you, we'll get through this together.

Too often, we shrink ourselves to fit expectations, leaving our truths unsaid and our dreams on read. We second-guess, we settle, we wait for the "right time." But let's be real—that time is now.

This is your wake-up call to stop doubting and start owning your power. To step into your main character energy and walk like you know you're priceless—because you are.

Her Spark Is Back

HER & HER MOONLIGHT

Let's share a story about my younger self, she was born with a bunch of tiny, glowing stars floating around her. These stars? They're like her confidence, her dreams, all the good stuff inside her. When she was little, those stars were super bright! She felt amazing, like she could do anything.

But then, she grew up, and life got...messy. People can be mean. One day, a girl with a voice like ice chips said to yue, "You're not good enough. You're not pretty enough. You'll never make it." Ouch! Those words hurt yue so much, it was like someone punched her light out. One of her stars went poof, gone. This mean girl kept saying horrible things, like a hurtful and bullying her from time to time. Every time she did, another star would fade. Yue world was getting darker and darker. She was scared.

What if all her stars disappeared?

What if she was left in total darkness?

HER & HER MOONLIGHT

Then, something clicked. Yue realized those stars weren't just given to her. They were her! They were made of her own strength and courage. She decided she wasn't going to let anyone steal her light anymore.

The mean girl came back, ready to throw more shade. But yue stood tall. She said, "Your words? They don't stick. They're like rain on a window, they slide right off." And she smiled, a real smile, bright as a sunbeam. Then she's walk away without turning back to that mean girl. And guess what? All her stars came rushing back, even brighter than before! Because yue learned that her light came from inside her, and no one could ever take it away.

that's how she could become today yue.
shine bright as i should.

HER & HER MOONLIGHT

HER & HER MOONLIGHT

Everything, in time;

For now, i surrender everything
to you, Lord.
Let it all be done in you.

HER & HER MOONLIGHT

They asked;
What is real

HAPPINESS?

Happiness is not fulfilling every pleasure or getting every outcome you desire. it is being able to enjoy life with a peaceful mind that is not constantly craving more.
the inner peace that comes with embracing change.

HER & HER MOONLIGHT

What is your answer?

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are approximately 20 lines visible. The paper appears to be a standard notebook page or a sheet of stationery.

GO

God, yourself instead of validation
